

Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF) consultants were on-site May 28th to 30th. The outcomes are in, and we proudly announce Countryside has received its 11th consecutive three-year accreditation!

It is noteworthy that our SURVEY REPORT included an exemplary conformance to standards for our development and implantation of a plan of service for each of the persons served in our various programs.

Community Services

- Community Integration
- Community Services Coordination
- Respite Services

Employment Services

Community Employment Services

- Job Development
- Job Supports
- Job-Site Training

Organizational Employment Services

Governance Standards Applied

CARF's SURVEY SUMMARY also noted:

"Staff members are committed, qualified, enthusiastic, and dedicated to improving the quality of life for each person served."

This accreditation decision represents the highest level that can be awarded to an organization and shows substantial conformance to the CARF standards. Countryside has put itself through a rigorous peer review process and has demonstrated to the surveyor team that its programs and services are of the highest quality, measurable, and accountable.

RF is an independent, nonprofit accrediting body whose mission is to promote the quality, value, and optimal outcomes of services through a consultive accreditation process that centers on enhancing the lives of persons served.

Visit carf.org for additional information.